Pocket-sized Bitch

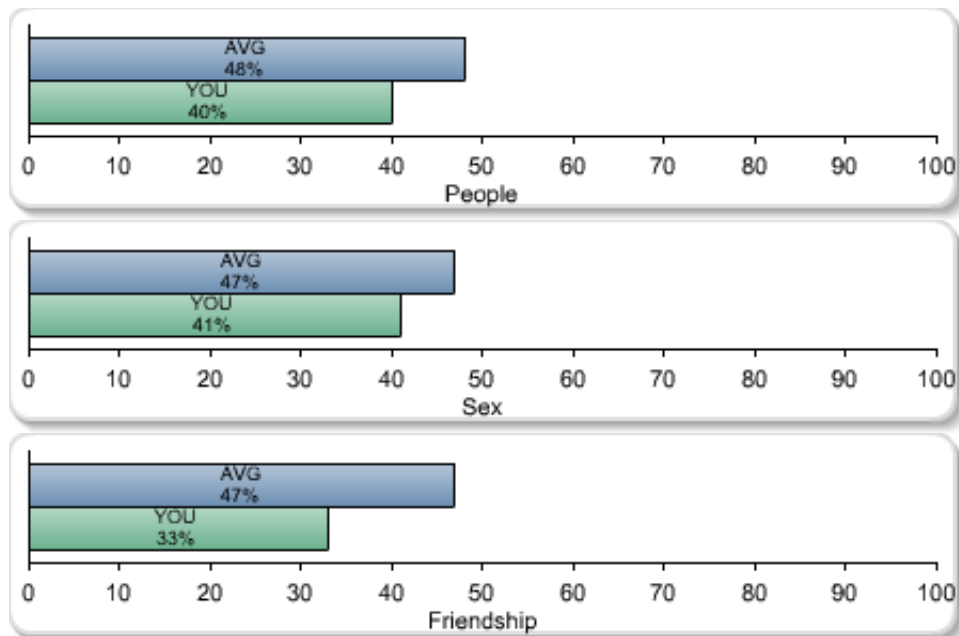

score: 113

Analysis

You are a pocket-sized bitch. Your bitchiness, although limited, has been known to rear its ugly face in inopportune times. In all of your relationships, you get walked over and play the part of the fool. Your significant other has full reign to do whatever they please, and you either don't see it or simply turn a blind eye. Don't believe your partner the next time he tells you the naked woman straddling him is the nurse resuscitating him from a heart attack. You maintain the appropriate balance to be successful in business. You don't compromise your personality when faced with conflict, but will weigh all options and display the right amount of backbone while still considering the "people" aspect of each situation. You walk a fine line between your true feelings and the right thing. You often feel the urge to express yourself in a bitchy manner but know how to hold back. You're able to balance your needs with your partner's, resulting in long-term satisfaction for both. You're able to find new and exciting ways to keep things fresh. Your friendships come and go, but you have the ability to maintain a few choice relationships that last. When you decide to start dating, you should find that men are much more receptive to you as people with a low bitch score are usually the most welcoming.

*Your score information is segmented into the following categories.
High percentages mean greater bitchness*

Pre-disposition

Your predisposition to being a bitch is influenced by your date of birth: Tuesday May, 01, 1956 which in Numerology equals a life-path number of Nine (Idealist). Nines seek to improve the world and may come across as bitchy if they are not able to communicate effectively. The day of the week on which you were born was Tuesday (Tyr's day). People born on a Tuesday have a need to win at any cost attitude. Typically, Tuesday people are headstrong and determined. Among widely adopted western astrological terms your star-sign is Taurus (The Bull). Taurus are jealous, possessive, resentful, inflexible, self-indulgent and greedy. Taurus are considered the bitchiest of the astrological signs. In Chinese astrology your symbol is Monkey (Impatient). Although Monkeys can become impatient quickly, it is their general good nature that makes them less likely than other Zodiac signs to become a bitch. In Treeology, the relationship of tree characteristics to personal traits, your title is Poplar Tree (The Uncertainty). Lacking in basic self-confidence, Poplars take their relationships very seriously. In combination with irrational choosiness they are often found alone contemplating abstract reasons for their unhappiness.
