The Criminal Procedure Law provides that presentation of a copy of this order of protection to any police officer or peace officer acting pursuant to his or her special duties shall authorize, and in some situations may require, such officer to arrest a defendant who has violated its terms and to bring him or her before the Court to face penalties authorized by law. Federal law requires that this order must be honored and enforced by state and tribal courts, including courts of a state, the District of Columbia, a commonwealth, territory or possession of the United States, if the person against whom the order is sought is an intimate partner of the protected party and has been or will be afforded reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard in accordance with state law sufficient to protect that person's rights (18 U.S.C. §§2265, 2266).
It is a federal crime to:
cross state lines to violate this order or to stalk, harass or commit domestic violence against an intimate partner or family member; buy, possess or transfer a handgun, rifle, shotgun or other firearm or ammunition while this Order remains in effect (Note: there is a limited exception for military or law enforcement officers but only while they are on duty); and buy, possess or transfer a handgun, rifle, shotgun or other firearm or ammunition after a conviction of a domestic violence-related crime involving the use or attempted use of physical force or a deadly weapon against an intimate partner or family member, even after this Order has expired. (18 U.S.C. §§922(g)(8), 922(g)(9), 2261, 2261A, 2262).

¹ Use this form for non-family offense orders of protection, issued pursuant to CPL §530.13, that are not issued to protect victims of family offenses, intimate partners and family and household members and are not entered onto the statewide domestic violence registry. See Exec. L. §221-a(1); CPL §§530.13(1), 530.13(2).
