- Service Type

Service Type: 90853 Group Psychotherapy - Anne Rose attended an effort to conduct cbt group psychotherapy. She immediately monopolized discussion, insisting on describing her concerns regarding participation in "involuntary pornography" over objections from this writer. Efforts to redirect towards discharge planning were met with hostile reaction, with Anne Rose yelling while admonishing this writer to "shut up". Anne Rose continues to effect an antagonistic relationship with treatment team, failing to align for any substantive discussion regarding possible discharge planning.
